FORTY-FOURTH CONGRESS.

FIRST SESSION.

WASHINGTON, June 30, 1876.

SENATE.

Postoffice Appropriation Conference.

The Chair appointed a new Conference committee on the Postoffice Appropriation bill.

Unlawful Mail Matter.

Mr. RAMLIN called up the House bill to amend the Revised Statutes providing a penalty for mailing obscene books and other matters therein contained, and prohibiting circulars from passing through the mails. After discussion the bill was passed.

Legislative Appropriation.

Mr. MORRILL, from the Conference Committee on the Legislative and Judiciary bill, reported that the committee had been able to agree. He moved that the Senate insist on its amendments to the bill, and ask for a new conference.

Pending the discussion the Chair laid before the Senate a joint resolution which passed the House this morning in regard to appropriating unexpended balances for a period not to exceed ten days, and it was referred to the Committee on Appropriations.

A recess was taken till 4 P. M., to allow the conference committees on the appropriation bills an opportunity to perfect those measures. The Republican Senators, excepting those on conference committees, shortly afterwards went into caucus.

The Unexpended Balances.

Upon reassembling Mr. MORRILL, from the Committee on Appropriations, reported back the bill passed by the House this morning to continue the unexpended balances to provide temporarily for the expenses of the Government for a period not exceed ten days.

After some discussion the bill was amended and agreed to.

The Chair announced a new Conference Committee on the Legislative, Executive and Judicial Appropriation Bill.

Sundry Civil Appropriations.

The Senate then took up the Sundry Civil appropriation bill.

Mr. WINDOM, in charge of the bill, said the amount appropriated by the bill as it came from the House was $15,256,731. To this the Senate Committee had added $4,-684,603, making the total amount now proposed to be appropriated $19,941,334. The bill for the current fiscal year appropriated $19,429,855. He then explained the various items of increase.

An amendment appropriating $30,000 to defray the expenses of the Senate in the Belknap impeachment was agreed to.

A recess was taken until 7:30 o'clock.

EVENING SESSION.

HOUSE.

Unexpended Balances.

The use of unexpended balances for ten days of the next fiscal year passed.

Centennial Invitation.

The Speaker presented an invitation from Joseph R. Hawley, President of the United States Centennial Commission, requesting the attendance of the House at the National commemoration of the one hundredth anniversary of American independence in Independence Square, Philadelphia, July 4 h 1876. Referred to the Committee on Centennial.

After the transaction of some minor business Mr. RANKS, from the Committee on Centennial Celebration, made an adverse report on the proposition for Congress to adjourn from the 1st of July to meet in Independence Hall, Philadelphia, on the 4th of July, stating that the consideration of public business rendered such proposition unadvisable. Laid on the table.

Mr. HOPKINS, from the same committee, reported a resolution accepting the invitation of the Centennial Commission to attend the Centennial celebration of the declaration of independence in Independence Square, Philadelphia, on the 4th of July.

Mr. KASSON intimated that unless the House adjourned over from to-morrow, acceptance of the invitation would be a sham, and suggested whether it would not be more appropriate to commemorate the event by services in the hall of the House Tuesday next.

Mr. SHERMAN favored Mr. Kasson's suggestion, and added that the most becoming celebration of the day would be for the House to meet in its own hall for solemn services, with the reading of God's Word and the offering of thanksgiving and praise. After considerable discussion the resolution to accept the invitation was adopted—yeas 121, nays 1—the negative vote being given by Mr. White, of Kentucky.

After the announcement that the resolution was adopted, Mr. WHITE raised the question that there was no quorum voting and the Speaker pro tem. ruled that the objection was not made in the Senate.

The Senate amendments to the House bill making temporary provision for the ordinary expenses of the Government for the next ten days were, on motion of Mr. RANDALL, concurred in. The bill was sent immediately to the President for his signature.

A recess was taken until 8 o'clock.

EVENING SESSION.

The Senate, upon reassembling resumed consideration of the Sundry Civil Appropriation Bill, and several amendments proposed by the Committee on Appropriations were agreed to. The bill having been ordered in Committee of the Whole, was reported to the Senate, and the amendments made in Committee of the Whole were concurred in.

Adjourned.

NOTES FROM THE CAPITAL.

THE Blaine investigation has been adjourned till the 10th of July.

THE Republican Senators were in caucus from ten o'clock until noon yesterday, discussing the condition of the appropriation bills and the dead lock with the House, but adjourned without reaching a conclusion.

THE indications at the close of business at the Treasury last night were that the weekly statement to be issued to-day will show a reduction during June of over $3,-000,000. The reduction for the same month of last year was $1,431,240.

THADDEUS STEVENS, JR., in reply to the charges of the Committee on the Judiciary, says he does not recognize any difference in the case of Fisher and Bellers, as heretofore submitted to Messrs. Carpenter, Black and Maxwell, and those printed in the Record.

AT a Cabinet meeting yesterday, the President requested that Secretary Cameron assume temporarily the duties of Secretary of the Treasury. It is believed that the question of the Secretaryship of that department will be settled to-day or on Monday.

THE COLLEGE REGATTA.

Eight-Oared Four Mile Race Between Yale and Harvard—An Easy Victory for the Yale Crew.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., June 30.—The eight-oared four mile race between the Yale and Harvard Crews on the Connecticut, opposite this city this afternoon, resulted in an easy victory for the Yale men, who took the lead at the start and kept it to the close, winning in about eighteen minutes ahead, twenty-two minutes and two seconds, the Harvard time being half a minute longer. The afternoon was fine, the water smooth, and the arrangements successful. Yale started off with a stroke of thirty-four to the minute, while Harvard pulled thirty-five, and at the end the first mile Yale was seven lengths ahead. During the last part of the race the Harvard made a spurt and reduced Yale's lead at the second mile flag to five lengths. But Yale steadily pulled away in the next mile, and Harvard was seven lengths behind at the beginning of the third mile, during which Yale still further increased its lead. The Yale stroke was very steady from the start to the finish, never varying below thirty-two nor above thirty-four, while Harvard varied from thirty-five to forty. The steering of the Yale coxswain during the first mile was perfect, and helped to give that crew its advantage during the rest of the race there was considerable wild steering in both boats.

The Yale men, who were present in large numbers, were very enthusiastic over the success of their crew, and held a jollification meeting in the Opera House in the evening, at which the crew had seats on the stage, and made lengthy speeches. Congratulatory speeches were made, all the time waiting in giving the chief credit to Cook for the stroke he has introduced.

Wrestling Match.

DETROIT, Mich., June 30.—At the wrestling match between J. H. McLaughlin, of Duluth, and J. H. Martin, of Ypsilanti, Michigan, which took place at Whitney's Opera House, this city, last night, the contestants wrestled from 10:45 last night till 6:30 this morning, without either party obtaining a fall. The referee endeavored at times to continue the match, but was unable to do so, and he declared the match a draw, and all bets off. This was the most equally contested match ever witnessed, both participants having achieved a coincidence with the referee, in the absence of the audience at the close of the match, their inability to throw each other.

The County Forgers Arrested.

HARRISBURG, PA., June 30.—Edward J. Fox, ex-County Treasurer of Lebanon county, and J. W. Kerr, formerly clerk in the Auditor General's office, and Marshall Kerr, clerk in the Treasury Department, have been arrested, charged with forging and falsifying returns of taxes collected in the county.

LONDON, June 30.—In the House of Commons this afternoon Isaac Butt, member from Limerick City, moved the appointment of a select committee to inquire into the nature, extent and grounds of the demands of a large proportion of the Irish people for the restoration of the Irish Parliament, with power to control the internal affairs of that country.

Roumania Watching Turkey.

BUCHAREST, June 30.—Roumania has made representations to the guaranteeing powers in reference to the intended operations of the Turkish flotilla on the Danube.

Why Servia Wants War.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 30.—The representative of Russia at Belgrade, acting on a direct order of the Emperor, has to the last moment done everything in his power to persuade Prince Milan from invading Turkish territory. The Prince, however, declared that, being urged by the people, he could not remain a passive spectator after the acts committed by the Turks in Bosnia, and their violation of Servian territory. Had the Porte accepted the suggestion of appointing him Viceroy of Bosnia on the condition of his recognizing the Sultan's full sovereignty, the Prince believes the insurrection and the consequent threatening aspect of affairs would have been avoided. The Porte would not negotiate with Servia, and he was compelled to yield to the public feeling of the country and must act accordingly.

The Difficulties of the New Sultan.

LONDON, June 30.—The Times' correspondent says the new Sultan is overwhelmed with the difficulties of his position and contemplates abdicating in favor of his younger brother.

A Desperate Resolution.

The Turkish Government has formed a desperate resolution of enlisting eighty thousand Boshi Bazouks, with a view to prevent the spread of the insurrection by the constant menace of a general massacre of Christians.

The children of General Ignatiaff, Russian ambassador, have been sent to Odessa, and the wives of the secretaries of the embassy have been taken to a place of safety. The aspect of affairs become more serious daily.

Servia Retaliating.

LONDON, July 1.—A dispatch says Servia has given notice to the foreign representatives at Belgrade of her intention to place torpedoes in the Danube if the Turkish gunboats quit Widdin.

Foreign Officers in the Servian Army.

The Servian army has among its officers one hundred and twenty Russians and thirty Germans who have held commissions in the armies of their respective countries.

NATIONAL BOARD OF TRADE.

Fast Mail Trains Favored—Railway Transportation—Unification of Trade and Commercial Laws—Revision of the Revenue and Bankrupt Laws Demanded.

NEW YORK, June 30.—The National Board of Trade to-day adopted a resolution submitted by the Board of Trade of Chicago favoring the establishment and continuance of fast mail trains, and their extension where the necessities of the service demanded, and they can be adopted at reasonable cost.

A resolution was adopted reciting that the remedy for abuses in existing forms of bills of lading and railroad receipts covering merchandise to be transported from one State to another lies within the scope and powers of Federal legislation under the power to regulate commerce, and that it is the duty of Congress to regulate said abuses by appropriate legislation. A resolution was also adopted suggesting that the rights and duties of railroads should be properly defined, and the relations existing between the public and those who now control the public highways be equitably and permanently adjusted.

Resolutions were also adopted commending to the consideration of the Legislatures of the several States the desirability of a unification of the laws of all States relating to trade and commerce, and discussing that the best interests of producers, merchants and exporters of grain require the adoption of a uniform standard of quality as the principal markets of the country.

The next questions for discussion were the action of the National Board of Trade favoring the repealing of the bankrupt act offered by the Scranton Board of Trade, and the continuation of the bankrupt law, offered by the Philadelphia Board of Trade. Mr. Busby, of Philadelphia, offered the outlines of a bill for amending the present law. A resolution was adopted to the effect that all officers should be salaried in bankruptcy proceedings, instead of the present system of fees. Another resolution was adopted requesting Congress to amend the bankrupt law and make it uniform throughout the whole country, and copies of the resolution were telegraphed to the Speaker of the House of Representatives.

The Boston Board of Trade offered the following, which were adopted:

Resolved, That the existing confusion and irregularity in all branches of business and industrial pursuits call for a thorough revision of the tariff, which shall be framed made in the interest of any class or classes of producers, manufacturers or merchants but for the benefit of the whole people and the maintenance and augmentation of the national revenue, and while the reforms already urged will be far more imperative and irresistible when the resumption of specie payments shall have brought our commercial values into equilibrium with those of other nations.

Resolved, That we recommend to Congress the appointment of a commission of intelligent, practical and thoroughly instructed persons for the purpose of accomplishing this most important work.

The following resolution was offered by the Chicago Board of Trade, and adopted:

Resolved, That the Congress of the United States be earnestly requested to cause an early and entire revision of the internal revenue system of the country, and that all existing laws be so modified as to produce the largest possible revenue from the smallest number of articles, and be rendered easy of comprehension, and so adjusted as not to invite a system of corruption among those who are called upon to pay the same and to those officials charged with the supervision of its collection.

An Unjust Official Removed.

WASHINGTON, June 30.—It is stated by personal friends of the President that the cause of the removal of H. T. Yaryan, Chief of the Special Agency Division of the Internal Revenue Bureau, was in procuring the removal of a special agent recommended by the President, a man crippled in the war and whose character was known by the President to be excellent, and also vouched for by Solicitor Binford. When Mr. Yaryan's attention being called to this removal, he assigned as a reason for it that the special agent had volunteered some testimony before a House committee reflecting on him. The President, on inquiry, was asked, and found that he was subpoenaed to testify, and that after stating that he knew nothing of his own knowledge concerning the subject of investigation he had been compelled by the committee to give the names of some persons who had talked to him about it. The President then called Mr. Yan's attention to this explanation, and Yaryan replied in substance: "Well, the man talks about me on the street, and I won't have him in the service." President Grant then upon took the matter in his own hands and ordered Yaryan's removal.

Death of a Philadelphia Judge.

PHILADELPHIA, June 30.—Hon. James Lynd, one of the Associate Judges of the Court of Common Pleas No. 3, died at a quarter before two o'clock this morning at his late residence in Woodland avenue. Two or three weeks ago he fell while leading a valuable Durham heifer about the grounds surrounding his house, his finger being badly lacerated by the teeth attached to the animal. Although the injury did not appear to be serious at first, it soon developed into symptoms of lock-jaw, and resulted in his death. Judge Lynd was a native of Philadelphia and was fifty-two years of age. The announcement of his death was made in the Court to-day, and suitable action was taken. A bar meeting will be held to-morrow.

Preparations to Notify Tilden and Hendricks of Their Nominations.

ST. LOUIS, June 30.—The committee appointed by the National Democratic Convention to notify Tilden and Hendricks of their nomination held a meeting last evening, made General John A. McClernand chairman, resolved to wait on the nominees in a body, and for that purpose to meet at the Fifth Avenue Hotel, in New York, on the 11th of July. A sub-committee was appointed to draw up a form of announcement to each of the nominees, and the Chairman was appointed a committee of one to confer with them as to where it will be the most convenient to them to receive the committee.

Schurz Defines His Position.

ST. LOUIS, June 30.—An editorial appeared in the Westliche Post, (Schurz's paper) to day, in which, after a denunciation of Tilden and Hendricks, the following language is used: "Humbug, thy name is Democracy. A reform—gold and paper, contraction and inflation, reform and swindle. Let us have it all. How many lines of use will be found to join this absurd chorus."

COUNTERFEITERS ARRESTED.

Caught in the Act of Making "Soft" Money.

NEW YORK, June 30.—United States detectives discovered the headquarters of a gang of counterfeiters at 53 Wilson street, Brooklyn, and arrested Tom Congdon, a notorious counterfeitar, who was engaged in printing National bank notes of five dollars denomination of Castleton, and Chas. Conklin, who was stamping bills with a United States Treasury seal. The house, on being searched, was found to contain every facility necessary for manufacturing counterfeit money. In one of the closets were found plates for printing five dollar bills on the Hamden National Bank of Westfield, Mass., Merchants National Bank of New Bedford, Mass., and National Bank of Castleton, N. Y. Fifty thousand dollars worth of National bank bills were drying near one of the windows. The plate from which the back of the bill was printed was said by one of the arrested counterfeiters to be in the hands of George White, one of the finest workmen in the country, and he was arrested and taken to Brooklyn yesterday. The prisoners were taken before Judge Benedict in the United States Court. White was indicted, pleaded guilty, and was remanded for sentence, and Congdon and Conklin pleaded not guilty.

Hendricks on the Fence.

INDIANAPOLIS, June 30.—Several of the New York delegates returning from St. Louis remained over one train to-night to call upon Governor Hendricks, who met them at the Occidental Hotel, and where the party was serenaded. Augustus Schell, John Kelly, William Roberts, W. H. Quincy and others made addresses. Governor Hendricks was then called out and talked for about five minutes. He declined to make an address, saying he had only called to pay his respects to the distinguished visitors. He then referred to the Convention and spoke of the platform adopted, especially dwelling with satisfaction upon that plank which called for a repeal of the resumption clause of 1875. He also referred to Tilden as a Reformer, and spoke eulogistically of him. He said nothing regarding his place on the ticket, or whether he would accept, and retired while the crowd urged him to go on. The visitors took a drive through the city with Hendricks and left on the next train.

An Incompetent Judge.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 30.—General R. D. Mussey, a member of the bar of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, has placed in the hands of Proctor Knott, Chairman of the House Judiciary Committee, a memorial charging D. C. Humphreys, one of the Associate Justices of the Supreme Court of the District, with being totally unfit mentally for Judge, that he is ignorant of law, frequently intoxicated upon the bench, and has sat in at least one case in which he had a direct pecuniary interest.

Reforms in New Hampshire.

CONCORD, N. H., June 30.—In the House this morning an address, calling for the removal of certain Democratic officials, was taken up, and after a long discussion Joseph F. Wiggin, Judge of Probate for Rockingham county, was removed. Addresses have been presented calling for a sweeping removal of all Democratic officials, some sixty in number. Much party feeling is consequently engendered.

Another Battle—An Indian Village Destroyed.

LOUISVILLE, June 30.—Information to the Courier Journal from Lancaster, Ky., says a mob removed Floyd Pierce, colored, charged with the murder of Henry Yeaky, white, from the jail there, this morning, and hanged him to a tree. S. J. Williams another murderer, was either liberated or escaped in the confusion.

ANNIVERSARY REJOICINGS.

A Pleasant Gathering at the Sixth Avenue U. P. Church Last Night.

Last night the forty-fourth anniversary of the Sixth Avenue U. P. Sabbath School was held in the church, and proved to be a most delightful affair, enjoyable alike to the young folks and those of adult years who were in attendance. The exercises were held in the auditorium of the church, which was packed to its utmost capacity, and the bright eyes and smiling faces of that portion of the audience in whose interest the entertainment was held, formed a picture much more fascinatingly attractive and beautiful than the loveliest fancy of an artist. The exercises commenced about half past seven o'clock, James Little, Esq., presiding. The programme embraced anthems by the children's choir, responsive Scripture readings by the leader and school, reading of the annual report, an appropriate and entertaining address by the Rev. W. J. Reid, D. D., and the singing of several hymns and hymns, at intervals, throughout the service. The exercises were brief, practical, and very harmoniously arranged, so that the programme moved off smoothly. The singing of the children was an especial feature of the evening, and added immeasurably to the interest of the occasion. The annual report set forth in detail the record of the school for the past year, which in general showed that the attendance had been up to the standard, and that in all departments the officers and teachers had reason to feel greatly encouraged by the success which had crowned their labors.

Following the exercises up stairs came a supplemental proceeding in the lecture room, which was hailed with hilarious glee by the young folks. Here arrangements had been made to serve refreshments to the scholars and all their little friends, and though there was a host of them the supply was abundant. The Superintendent, Thos. H. Rabe, Esq., had special charge of this feature, financially and otherwise, and it was to the credit he has done everything to perfection. The children came trooping in for over an hour, and yet found a hospitable welcome and were served with the refreshments as fast as they came, to their hearts' content. They laughed and chatted, and romped and ate, until tired nature asserted her sway, and then with reluctance, perhaps, but from necessity of weariness, they were compelled to acknowledge they had enough of enjoyment for one occasion. It was not until after ten o'clock that the entertainment was brought to a close. The anniversary throughout was an exceedingly pleasant one, creditable in all its arrangements to the liberality and tact of Superintendent Rabe and his assistants, keenly enjoyed by the young folks who were the active participants and beneficiaries, and highly entertaining to the visitors. It was one of those occasions that are as links in the golden chain which binds officers, and teachers, and scholars and friends more closely to their school.

DEFRAUDING THE STATE.

Governor Hartranft After Embezzlers and Conspirators.

Governor Hartranft has entered suits before Mayor Patterson, of Harrisburg, against Edward Gunster, Democratic ex-Treasurer of Luzerne county, W. W. Kerr of Freedom, Beaver county, and Marshall S. Smith, of Indiana county, for defrauding the State of money. The first suit charges Gunster with forging a check for $1,000 in the year 1874 the return amount of taxes collected and received by Edward Gunster as Treasurer of Luzerne county, into the office of the Auditor General with the intention of defrauding the Commonwealth out of $1,000 more or less. The second suit is against Smith and Kerr, and charges them with combining in 1875 to offer and give money to James Courtright, then Treasurer of Luzerne county, to corruptly influence him in the discharge of his duty, that they did corruptly solicit Courtright to make a false return of the amount of taxes for licenses collected by him and due the Commonwealth, and that they forged and falsified Auditor General Lyon's name in procuring $2,100, the money of the State. Kerr was a clerk in the Auditor General's office, and Smith a clerk it. the State Treasurer's office. All the parties have been arrested. Gunster gave $4,000 bail for a hearing on Monday, Kerr a similar amount for a hearing on the 5th inst., and Smith entered into bond for his appearance for trial at the August term of Court.

THE TRIPLE CRIME.

Two More Arrests on Suspicion—The Evidence Very Slim.

Balthazar Shafer and Elmer Gool were arrested yesterday by Lieut. Jerry Smith and officer Immer on suspicion of being concerned in the murder of August Coleman, on Federal street, Allegheny, on Wednesday morning. There does not now seem to be a particle of evidence to connect them with the crime. They were arrested because Gool is an intimate friend of Smith Elkins, and because Shafer occupied, until a few weeks ago, the upper story of the house in which the murder was committed. He was arrested because he had words with either Coleman or Thomann, (not Topham) was on the eve of getting married and would desire the room used by him. He went to Troy Hill and resides there now. The arrest of Elkins was the result of the evidence of Solomon Reynolds, who now says that while he believes Elkins to be the man he saw a few moments after the murder was committed he could not swear to it. There is positively little evidence against any of the prisoners, and if they were to have a hearing to-day the Mayor would be obliged to discharge them. It is generally conceded now that the perpetrator of the crime is yet at liberty. The rumor yesterday that Thomann had been placed under the surveillance of the police at Mercy Hospital is denied by Chief Ross, who does not think the injured man had aught to do with the death of his partner.

BASE BALL NOTES.

Victory of the Alleghenys—Defeat of the Neshannocks.

The Philadelphia and Allegheny clubs played their second game of ball at Union Park yesterday afternoon, and the latter won by the following score:

Innings	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
Allegheny	0	0	0	5	2	0	1	2	1—11
Philadelphias	1	0	4	0	1	4	0	0	0—10

The Alleghenys had 1 passed ball, 10 fly catches, 2 earned runs, 1 home run and 15 base hits with a total of 22. The Philadelphias had 2 passed balls, 14 fly catches, no earned runs and 7 base hits with a total of 8.

At New Castle yesterday the New Havens triumphed over the Neshannocks to the extent of 15 to 7.

The statement that the Neshannocks defeated the Red Stockings on Thursday by a score of 3 to 0 turns out to be incorrect. It was won that day by other way. The Red Stockings won by a score of 9 to 4.

The Alleghenys and New Havens play again at Union Park this afternoon.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT.

A Man Seriously Burned in Allegheny.

Last evening, about five o'clock, at Phillips' oil cloth manufactory, on Ohio street, Allegheny, John Heins was making some varnish in a shed in the rear of the factory. While pouring some turpentine into a kettle of the varish, which was on a stove, he spilled some of it on his clothes, and in an instant after his clothing caught fire, as did also the kettle of varnish and the building. Mr. Heins ran out, and called for help, but before the fire could be extinguished he was very badly burned about the legs and body. He was removed to a house near by, and Dr. Riggs summoned, and as soon as his injuries were attended to he was removed to his home, on Washington avenue. When the shed blazed up an attempt was made to send an alarm from box 71, but it was out of order. The Lincoln Engine Company was notified, and the fire put out before any material damage was done.

PROPOSING TO DIE.

A Man Makes Ready for Suicide, but is Arrested and Locked Up.

Last evening about nine o'clock a man, giving his name as Jackson Sherman, went into Reineman's saloon, on Smithfield street, midway between Fourth avenue and Diamond alley, and sat there for awhile scribbling away. He finally called one of the waiter boys and asked him to read to him what he had written. This the boy could not do, as it was so incoherent. At the request of Sherman the boy then wrote the following at his (Sherman's) dictation: Mr. Jackson McCormick:

I am sorry to think that I am going to do away with myself through trouble of whisky and women. I am low down in confidence, and I hope my sister Lavina shall never do as I have done. I am alone in the world, and I am tired of living. I say to my mother: Mother, stick to your church.

Good-by sister and brother. I leave my clothes at the Rush House.

JACKSON SHERMAN.

He told the boy that he was going down to the river and drown himself. Being afraid that he would, a messenger was dispatched from the saloon to the Central station and an officer went down and arrested the would be-suicide, and he is now locked up awaiting the disposition of the Mayor. He would not tell where he lived himself, but said he had a wife living opposite the Homeopathic hospital, on Second avenue

OF NEW YORK.

GOVERNOR TILDEN has made a speech to his friends of the Jackson Club, in which he calls for reform, in terms about equivalent to the Democratic platform.

JUDGE KELLY defeated Mr. DAVIS, the Ring candidate, for the Congressional nomination in Philadelphia. The Judge, while occasionally erratic, has made an excellent representative in Congress, and stands high among the people of his District. He will make the election, of course, as he always succeeds in this. His chance of usefulness will again return with the new term of Congress.

OUR Schools, Seminaries and Universities have closed their academic year, and Commencements over, those who have spent the year in study will be at liberty to enjoy a summer of relaxation and rest. The year, at our institutions of learning in and near Pittsburgh, has been fairly prosperous, proving thus the strong hold our schools have on the people of this city and surrounding communities. We learn the prospects for the coming term are very excellent, and that our several institutions will start upon the new year with unimpaired prosperity.

THE ratification meeting this evening should be largely attended, and doubtless will be. The two held thus far have been successful, and that fixed for to-night will be, without doubt. We call upon Republicans to turn out in large numbers, and give to the ticket a warm, earnest, Pittsburgh ratification. Speakers from abroad, as well as at home, will be present and the audience will be entertained with earnest, strong addresses. Let us, therefore, be on the look out for a grand ratification of the ticket. Remember the Opera House, and this evening.

OF the Legislative nominations, made in Philadelphia, the Times says: "Very little comment is called for on the nominations for the Legislature made yesterday. It is nearly the same crowd that brought so much credit upon the city and the State last winter, and such changes as are made do not appear remarkable in the way of improvement. The ticket, in short, is the ordinary Pilgrim ticket. Scarcely a man of them would be calmly selected by his fellow-citizens to represent them in the Legislature of the State or any other responsible body, but when they select themselves, their fellow citizens contentedly vote for them and then wonder at the incompetence and corruption displayed at Harrisburg."

AFFAIRS in Turkish Europe are steadily looking toward a crisis. The Servians are evidently bent on war, and have an army that will seriously trouble any force the Turks can bring against it. With rebellion in Herzegovina, Bosnia, and possibly Montenegro, Greece taking part in it, Turkey will be under the necessity of looking for aid from the Great Powers, or must go under. A few days will probably bring exciting news from the parties who are now so rapidly coming to a conflict of arms. They have deep hates, growing out of differences of race, religion, and governmental aspiration. If war is once entered upon, it will be bitter, cruel and vindictive. The oppressions of the Turks, these many years, will be revenged in the most terrible manner, and even the downfall of the Turkish Empire may be the final result.

IN CASE the dead-lock now existing between the Senate and House at Washington on the Appropriation bills be not in some way harmonized within a day or two at farthest, there is great danger of the most troublesome consequences arising from lack of legal resources with which to carry on the postal and other services of the country. The House is assuming a fearful responsibility in not proposing some compromise with the Senate, as the latter body has, in good faith, accepted all reasonable reductions proposed by the Democratic majority, but stands firm in a demand that sufficient funds be placed at the disposal of the departments, wherewith to properly and economically run the wheels of government. If the appropriations fail, and the postal service in consequence stop, the responsibility must rest with the Democracy, and the people so understand it.

THE New York Tribune takes no stock in the Democratic platform, or in TILDEN'S chances under it. It says: "Look at the platform. There is just one practical declarstion in the whole of it. There are promises of reform indeed—reform in the civil service by the party which has made such havoc in Washington clerkships, and reform in the Federal, State and municipal taxation by the party which created Tammany and the new Court House; but of practical declarations there is, as we say, just one; that is a demand for the unconditional repeal of the Resumption act. There is no pledge to resume at any time; there is no word of condemnation for the inflation heresy; the Republicans are denounced for failing to make good the promise of the legal tender notes, and for 'the financial imbecility and immorality' which has postponed resumption so long; but the only step which has been taken toward resumption the Democrats insist upon retracing, and they offer no substitute for it.

THE Democratic party commits itself to free trade again just at a time when even in England there is agitation against it, owing to its oppressive features. The English and Scotch Pauper Manufacturers' Association has made an appeal to Lord DERBY to arrange, in making commercial treaties, to protect this branch of trade. In Lord DERBY'S reply he said that they had his sympathy, but of course they were aware that the Government did not stand in a very strong position with respect to commercial negotiations with foreign countries, because we had nothing, or next to nothing, to give them. We had adopted, no doubt wisely, the free-trade system, and it was therefore too late to talk of reciprocity. The difficulty in the case of dealing with foreign States was that they had not only to meet the resistance of the protective interests, but the great dislike to direct taxation. He hoped they would at all times communicate freely with that office, and their matter would receive their best consideration. We commend this additional lesson to our free-trade friends in the United States, and hope they will see how natural it is even for the English to turn to protection as a means of relief.

THERE are practical phases to the currency question, and the several laws affecting it, that deserve a moment's notice. The Financial Chronicle says on this subject: "It is simply a question of profit and loss. An instance which we have before given shows what is the extent of the temptation the banks are under to withdraw their currency. The case we refer to was a bank in Massachusetts of $150,000 capital. They had $100,000 of notes of 1881 on deposit as security for $90,000 of circulation. Withdrawing the bonds, they sold them at 123, and realized an increase of nearly $34,000 in available funds. So long as this inducement continues the movement must progress." But while so large an amount of notes has been withdrawn from circulation, additional bank notes have been issued to the extent of $19,579,915, showing that there is a real demand for more currency, else banks would not deposit bonds to obtain it. The SHERMAN resumption bill is effecting a double contraction. It encourages the retirement of notes, and requires that a dollar in greenbacks shall be deposited for every dollar in bank notes retired. In this way the actual contraction for the time is just double the amount of notes intended to be withdrawn.

THE CONFIRMATION.

The Ring is triumphant, and its organs glad. By dint of push and exertion, the nomination of Mr. MCCORMICK has been confirmed. Mr. REED, against whom no charges have been, or could be made, has been degraded, and the revenge of the Ring for the present is complete. The Republicans of Western Pennsylvania, who believe at all times in fair play, have been insulted. Mr. CAMERON, we understand, has declared, in view of the feeling developed, that he can buy public opinion, and thus the aroused sentiment in this part of the State is to be crushed. We state this, that respectable Republicans may know the exact estimate that is being placed on them. The bravado is, that if any attempt is made to drop any of their candidates, enough Democrats or loose handed Republicans will be bought to carry the parties through. We commit this subject to the Republicans of Western Pennsylvania, with the following, as bearing on the case immediately in hand: When charges had been preferred against Collector STEEL, and his resignation called for, his friends asked that he have the opportunity to reply to or explain the charges made,—a point readily and properly conceded. But when Mr. REED is suddenly removed without charges being preferred he is not allowed a word in reply, but the confirmation of his successor is pushed through with whip and spur. This is the contrast in the two cases.

It now remains to be seen whether the Republicans of Allegheny county intend to submit to such operations. If they do, the insults will be repeated, and their courage and firmness held in merited contempt. If they do not, the time has come to let it be known. It is not at all difficult to mark out a programme that will meet the emergencies of the case. When a Ring proposes to make war on the Republican party, in the edge of a Presidential canvass, it is the duty of the party to free itself of all elements of that nature, in order that, with a clean record, it may move strongly and directly forward. It is entirely within the power of the leading Republicans of the county to so direct matters as that there will be a new deal, the Ring being forced to terms, and compelled to act justly with our people. The vindictiveness displayed toward Mr. REED is only part of a general programme in that direction, which will be ultimately carried out. Unless it is met at once, the result will be the deep disgrace of the party in this end of the State. We submit the question with these brief statements, and wait to see if there shall be spirit enough to rise up and meet the demands of the hour. It is not Mr. REED that is to be vindicated,—but the principle that Republicans shall freely exercise their rights within the party, without being subject to the domination of an outside Ring. If they cannot, it will be bad for the party in the future. If they will, now is the time to show it.

A Port Resuscitated.

More than fifty years ago a poem was published in England by a young man, Charles Wells by name, entitled "Joseph and his Brethren." No one seems to have read it; the critics did not notice it; it was neither condemned directly, nor was it damned with faint praise. It did not fall out of memory, simply because it was not taken up—not seen; no one was interested to make it known. It is safe to say that not one reader of English literature in half a million has ever known of the existence of the book or of its author. But now when the author is an old man, and expecting his near departure, he finds himself suddenly famous, as his long-forgotten book is brought out from its dust, and heralded to another generation as one of the great poems of the age, to be ranked with the great poems of the world, and but little behind the work of Shakespeare. This is what Mr. Algernon Swinburne, who writes the preface, says of it; and if he is not a competent judge, who can be? In the music of the diction, in the beauty of the sentiment, in the force of thought, in the wealth of the imagery, the critics tell us that its equal is not easily to be found. In a little time every one will be reading it, and if the tired soul of the poet is still susceptible of joy, he will take up the song of aged Simeon in the Temple, and praise the Lord that the long-delayed justice has come at last.

Nothing Extraordinary.

Some of the newspapers are astonished at a horse pulling the plug out of the bunghole of a barrel for the purpose of slaking his thirst. That's not extraordinary. Now, if the horse had pulled the barrel out of the bunghole and slaked his thirst with the plug, or if the barrel had pulled the bunghole out of the horse and slaked its thirst with the plug, of if the barrel had pulled the bunghole out of the plug and slaked its thirst with the horse, or if the plug had pulled the horse out of the barrel and slaked its thirst with the bunghole, or if the bunghole had pulled the thirst out of the horse and slaked the plug with the barrel, or if the barrel had pulled the horse out of the bunghole and plugged its thirst with the slake, it might be worth while to make a fuss about it.

Genius Crushed.

The other day a dreamy young poet sat down with a bundle of old letters, in stained envelopes with faded addresses, to write a sad requiem over the days that are dead. He began:

Though ye waken sad thoughts as I sit here alone,
I will carefully lay you away,
For better the shadow of years that are gone
Than the cold garish light of to-day.

And when he got that far he opened one of the letters for a little inspiration and read: "Sir yur bil far drinks at this Bar is $17.85 an has been runnin 8 munths and if not pade this evenin will present the same to yure onered father fur paymint. Resp. Abel Ginsling," and then he sighed and laid away the letters and didn't feel like fiuishing the requiem that day.

A Revengeful Young Woman.

On Wednesday evening, says the Utica Herald, a young couple, hailing from Munnsville, drove up the the Bacon House, in Oneida, alighted, and stated that they then and there wished to be united in the holy bonds of matrimony. After a minister had been procured, and all of the necessary arrangements made to bring about this happy end, the young lady excused herself from the room, saying she would return in a few minutes, and as she left handed the waiting clergyman a note, which he read soon after her departure, as follows:

"ARTHUR—You will wait for me in vain, for the longer you wait the further away I'll be. I shan't marry you to-night. You went back on me a year ago, and I'll get even with you now.

AFFAIRS OF STATE.

A THREE year old son of Adam Rung, of Crawford county, was killed last Tuesday by an empty trough falling on his neck and choking him to death.

A MAN by the name of Sawyer, living at Tionesta, was stung by a black spider not long since, and from a stout healthy man he became shriveled and emaciated in consequence, and is unable to perform the slightest labor.

A MAN named Bennett, of Sheridan's Station, Cambria county, knocked his wife down this week with a stone because she fled from him at a threat to take her life. She went to a neighbor's house where she had convulsions, necessitating the strength of three persons to control her movements. Bennett ought to be compelled to undergo an hour's practical experience at the whipping post.

A FEW days ago a somewhat remarkable phenomenon was discovered in the Beechwood Colliery, near Pottsville, in the shape of a tree some four or five feet high, which size it is supposed to have reached after several years' growth, at a distance of several hundred yards below the surface. The tree is perfectly formed, containing the many branches usually appertaining to the denizen of the forest.

POCKETS in the rear of a young lad's pantaloons will go out of fashion in one family in Oil City. A Pearl avenue mother attempted to correct one of her young lads, and used a shingle for the purpose. The half a dozen torpedoes which the boy had concealed in that rear pocket all exploded at the first blow, and the lad doesn't think he will be well enough on the Fourth to sit down at the picnic tables.

AMOS JOLLIFF, of Uniontown, has a pair of white eaglets which were captured near the base of Chesnut Ridge by a ten year old son of Joseph Braddee. The lad climbed a tree eighty feet high, and was attacked by the old bird, and overpowered. He called to his father to aim cautiously at the old one and make a sure shot, as the birds were a great prize. Braddee, with his trusty rifle, obeyed his son's injunction, and brought the bird to the ground, when the son took from her nest two beautiful white eaglets.

IN the York county jail a day or two ago a Jew started to boil some eggs in the jail kitchen. An imprisoned sailor quietly stole behind him, abstracted an egg, made a hole in it, sucked the contents out, and then refilled the egg with water, plugged it neatly and left it to boil. When they were done the man who had been cooking them took them out and proceeded to remove the shells by biting into them. As he reached the watered egg he put it to his face, bit, and for about three minutes there was a mixture of Jew, hot water, egg shells and oaths.

JEWETT BLAIR, of Rebersburg, Center county, sixteen years of age, accidentally shot himself last Saturday, with a pistol, which he was trying to repair. He was sitting on the front porch when the accident occurred. His sister Emma was up stairs and heard the report. Thinking the weapon had been discharged accidentally she ran down and seeing the condition of affairs, she ran to her parents, saying, "Jewett has shot himself." The father went out and met Jewett coming in, who said, "Father, I have shot myself," and fell into his father's outretched arms. He was laid down on a lounge and expired in fifteen minutes.

WHILST hiving a swarm of bees at Grazierville, a few days ago, Mr. Augustus Hilderbrand was so severely stung that it was feared for some time he would die. The bees got under his hat and pierced his head, which is bald, and literally covered his face and neck with their painful stings. Though he was not stung below the shoulders, the poison broke out on his legs and feet, and went into his body again, causing him to become very sick. After the inward application of whisky and other medicine, he threw from his stomach the green poison deposited by the bees, which gave him relief, and saved his life.—Tyrone Herald.

J. E. MUSE, one of the Democratic Jury Commissioners of Huntingdon County, left his home in Franklin a few days ago for the purpose, as he told his friends, of visiting St. Louis. Previous to his departure, however, he turned as much of his property as possible into cash, disposed of his bank stocks, building and Loan Association stock, and other securities, and so far as possible settled up all his business engagements. This action caused the rumor that he had deserted his home and family, and on Wednesday morning his wife received a letter from him dated Chicago, but post marked Mercer, Pa., stating that he had disgraced himself and family, and that there was no use of spending time or money to look for him as he never intended returning to his home. He had been quite intimate with Sadie Roch, a married women of Franklin, who has also disappeared. Muse is said to have left his family ample means for their support.

A Marching Body of Worms.

An army of worms is creating great excitement near Hellertown, in Bucks county. They are confined in great numbers to one particular locality, and do nothing but crawl from one point to another, a distance of three or four hundred yards, and back again. No worms are to be seen anywhere else. They travel only in the morning, until eight or nine o'clock, and after sunset in the evening. In the day-time they lie concealed under rocks and in openings. The space they inhabit is so full during their marching time that a person cannot take a step without killing a number. They are a little over an inch long, of a yellowish color, have a black stripe over the back and possess sixty-five feet with which they travel pretty rapidly. They have a very offensive odor, and are so tender that if pressed hard they fall to pieces. When touched they emit a sort of a scream. Their only food is earth, and therefore they are not destructive. The superstition of that vicinity ascribes the appearance of these worms to the mysterious disappearance of an old man named Egg, who was deranged, and whose body was recently found among a lot of bushes. He had been shot, it is said, by the members of a society, the secrets of which he revealed in his ravings. These worms are stirring the people up to an investigation of Mr. Egg's death. This is the quietest worm story that ever reached our ears, but its truth is vouched for by the Lehigh Register.—It might be that Egg hatched the worms.

The Paupers of England.

The Pall Mall Gazette says that on the 1st of January last year there were, according to a Parliamentary return just issued, in the several union work-houses in England and Wales 54,088 men, 47,370 women, and 44,634 children. Of these 52,968 men, 46,260 women, and 3,0394 were in English, and 1,120 men, 1,110 women, and 1,694 children in Welsh work-houses. Of the total number 43,634 men, 36,391 women, and 35,592 children belonged to the Church of England, while 10,275 men, 10,885 women, and 8,996 children belonged to other religious communities. Of all the countries in England and Wales, Middlesex claimed the largest number of paupers at the date mentioned, and Rutland the smallest, the numbers being—for Middlesex, 9,626 men, 11,234 women, 7,678 children; for Rutland, 60 men, 33 women, and 42 children. Lancashire, next to Middlesex, shows the largest number of work-house paupers—namely, 6,421 men, 6,784 women, and 4,637 children. It would be interesting, if it were possible, to have a return of the number of relations owned by this army of paupers, with a correct account of their incomes.

A SONG OF THE COUNTRY.

Away from the roar and the rattle,
The dust and the din of the town,
Where to live is to brawl and to battle,
Till the strong treads the weak man down!

Away to the bonnie green hills
Where the sunshine sleeps on the brae,
And the heart of the greenwood thrills
To the hymn of the bird on the spray.

Away from the smoke and the smother,
The veil of the dun and the brown,
The push and the plash and the pother,
The wear and the waste of the town!

Away where the sky shines clear,
And the light breeze wanders at will,
And the dark pine-wood nods near
To the light-plumed birch on the hill.

Away from the whirling and wheeling,
And steaming above and below,
Where the heart has no leisure for feeling
And the thought has no quiet to grow;

Away where the clear brook purls,
And the hyacinth droops in the shade,
And the plume of the fern uncurls
Its grace in the depth of the glade.

Away to the cottage so sweetly
Embowered 'neath the fringe of the wood,
Where the wife of my bosom shall meet me
With thoughts ever kindly and good;

More dear than the wealth of the world,
Fond mother with bairnies three,
And the plump-armed babe that has curled
Its lips sweetly pouting for me.

Then away from the roar and the rattle,
The dust and the din of the town,
Where to live is to brawl and to battle
Till the strongest treads the weak man down!

Away where the green twigs nod
In the fragrant breath of the May,
And the sweet growth spreads on the sod,
And the blithe bird sings on the spray.

HOME NEWS.

The probabilities for to-day are southeast to southwest winds, warmer, partly cloudy, rainy weather, with occasional local rains, and rising barometer.

The County Committee.

Through the discourtesy of the Commercial, which secured the manuscript of the Republican County Committee yesterday afternoon, with instructions to send proofs to the other papers, we did not receive the proof until after three o'clock this morning—too late to have it put in type.

To-night's Ratification.

A grand Hayes and Wheeler ratification meeting will be held at the Opera House this evening. The following prominent citizens have been requested and are expected to address the meeting, Mr. James Park, Jr., Mr. John K. Shoenberger; Hon. Thos. M. Howe, Hon. Robert McKnight, Hon. S. A. Purviance, Maj. A. M. Brown, Mr. H. A. Cordier, Mr. B. F. Jones and others. Gen. J. K. Moorhead will preside. The occasion will be one in which our strong men will participate, and where safe counsel will be given to the people. Let all the friends of the Republican candidates lend their presence and join in attesting to the world their faith in the integrity, patriotism and capacity of our chosen leaders.

Attempted Robbery.

About two o'clock yesterday morning, Lieutenant James Carey, of the Mayor's police, was attracted to No. 49 Fourth avenue, by cries of "Murder! Police!" Reaching there, he learned that two men had entered the room where Mrs Oster and a girl were sleeping, and demanded their money, intimidating them with a butcher's cleaver and a big stone. The girl jumped out of bed and out of the second-story window, alighting on a shed, and rolling to the ground, with but little injury, screaming as she went. The men became frightened and left without obtaining anything. The officers made a thorough search of the house, and finally found in the coal vault a son of Mrs. Oster. He was arrested and taken to the station house. He declined to give the name of his accomplice. He will probably have a hearing to-day. It is not thought that the two men intended to do more than frighten the women into giving up their money.

A Humane Enterprise.

A letter has been addressed to Carl Beck, Director of the German Band, signed by Mayor McCarthy, Mayor Phillips, and numerous residents of both cities, as follows. "We respectfully request you to set apart your usual amusement for another day for the purpose of giving a last and parting concert for the benefit of a charitable institution, in which we are all interested—the Allegheny County Humane Society—a branch of the Pennsylvania Society for the prevention of cruelty to animals. Having been charmed by your artistic performance during the evenings of your stay, we feel that a compliance with our request will not only be a material aid to us but will be highly appreciated by the general public. Knowing that the noble art which you are cultivating is as elevating and humanizing in its effects as is the society with which we are identified, we beg you to grant us our request—in view of the object—at such remuneration as may commend your favorable consideration." Mr. Beck replied to this according to the request, and to-night the performance will take place in the Germania Garden, commencing at 8 o'clock. Mr. Burdett, proprietor of the garden, has given them the use of it free to the Society, and has made extraordinary arrangements for the occasion.

Hayes vs. Tilden.

Opposition is the life of trade. It makes goods cheap in price. Taggart, 129 Federal street, Allegheny City, carries out this lawfully, and sells so cheap that none dare sell cheaper. Call and see what Taggart will continue to sell against the world.

COLORED CONFIDENCE.

An Old Darkey Loses Five Hundred Dollars.

A day or two ago, Benjamin Taylor, an old colored man, residing in Allegheny, called at the Mayor's office in this city to relate his grievances. He said that some time before a colored man named Thomas Willard had borrowed from him $500 on false and fraudulent representations. These were that Williams had expected to get $300 from his brother, and that he owned a lot in Washington, D. C. The money was loaned, but Thomas not only failed to return it but ungratefully went off to Altoona where he was arrested yesterday, brought to this city, and locked up in the Central Station to await a hearing.

INFANTICIDE.

An Unnatural Mother—A Babe in a Coal Bucket.

About eight o'clock last evening Chief of Police Hartzell received a note asking him to call at Mrs. Clowes' boarding house, No. 8 Eighth street, and bring the Coroner with him. Agreeably to the summons, he repaired to the place. There he learned that on last Wednesday night one of the females of the house, Rachel Smith, had given birth to a male child, and placing it in a coal bucket, carried it to the cellar. Some of the inmates of the house heard the child crying, but at first supposed it to be a kitten. Subsequently Wm. Wilson and Katie, one of the domestics, made a search for the kitten and discovered it to be a new born babe in an exposed condition lying in the coal bucket. Dr. Bingwan was summoned and after a consultation it was agreed to keep the matter quiet. The mother and child were, therefore, bundled up and taken in a carriage to the Homeopathic Hospital where the child died in a short time from the effects of exposure and the inhuman treatment it received from its mother. Coroner Kerr was notified of the case. Coroner, after hearing the facts, said that he had no jurisdiction in the case, the death having been certified to by the attending physician and the remains buried. Rachel Smith, the mother of the babe, is from Brownsville, is still at the hospital under police surveillance.

Assistant United States Attorney, P. C. Knox, tendered his resignation yesterday. This will be unpleasant news to all persons having business at the United States District Attorney's office, for in addition to being eminently qualified for the position, Mr. Knox is a courteous and accomodating gentleman, pleasant and agreeable to all with whom he comes in contact.

The petition of L. B. Marvis and other stock holders in the Nations' Trust Company was presented to the United States District Court yesterday, praying the court to restrain the Trustees from bringing suit on the securities held by them for the creditors. The petition sets forth that the stock holders have compromised with the city and county, representing two-thirds of the entire indebtedness, to pay in ninety days from June 15, and that if suits are brought and collection enforced as is threatened, the property of the stock holders will be sacrificed, and they incapacitated from paying as large a per centage of their indebtedness, as they promised to pay to the city and county. An order restraining the trustees until July 15, was issued.

On the morning of the Fourth there will be held a joint services of the congregations of this city and Allegheny, at 10 o'clock. Chief Marshall and his staff of the civic procession have been invited to attend this service.

THE Independent is unhappy because of the action of the General Conference on the color line, or rather the division of Conferences. The Conference proved that those on the ground knew their own wants better than the Independent does, and were better able to determine about dividing the work than the editorials. In this, they may be mistaken. But they left it to be determined by the majority of those interested. How else would a Congregationalist have determined it?—Pittsburgh Christian Advocate.

THE United Presbyterian asks: "Why shall not the churches pay the expenses of those who go to Synods and Presbyteries? They leave their own business to do work for the church; they are not always able to afford outlays; and congregations sending them ought to see that they are properly reimbursed for all their expenditures. Twenty cents per member, in many congregations, would be a yearly contribution sufficient to meet all such demands, and it ought to be made alike in obedience to the rule of the church and the promptings of conscience."

WE would let a divinity student be a "boy" as long as he can. We would not "force" him, or make a sham of him, but would tell him to be cheerful, happy, buoyant, growing naturally into the wisdom of age. It is, however, too often the case that students are less interested in religion and religious things than they ought to be. They miss prayer meetings, Sabbath schools, Bible classes, and other religious meetings where they ought to be found, helping others and helping themselves, and otherwise act as if there was no claim on them but the simple one of learning to preach.—United Presbyterian.

CHURCHES that succeed are churches that live up to the spirit of the period in which they act. They have an active side which calls into play the faculties employed in secular, every day life, and which demands the application of just such principles and practices as are necessary to material prosperity. To suppose a congregation will grow because it has good antecedents, good preaching and a happy location, while it ignores surrounding business life, is to suppose an impossibility. Let it use the brain, zeal, earnestness, that are necessary to the management of a store or public office, and then—the spirituality, the religion, having a proper ascendency—it will grow in power and influence.

THE GRAND INQUEST.

Presentment of the Grand Jury—Their Visits to Public Institutions—How the County Home is Managed.

The Grand Jury for June sessions having concluded the business for which they were directly summoned, and visited the several county institutions, as well as other public institutions in the county, yesterday, made a report of these visits in the form of a presentment. It will be remembered that a few days since the attention of the Court was called to the fact that the quarterly visits of the jury to the county institutions were an annoyance and expense, and they were notified that if they visited the County Home, they need not expect the usual feast, this in way of explanation of what the jury say of that institution. Following is

THE PRESENTMENT.

The Grand Inquest of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, now inquiring in and for the county of Allegheny, upon their oaths and solemn affirmations, make this their general presentment:

That after having finished the business of the court, they in their official capacity as official visitors, visited the following institutions of the county, to wit: The County Workhouse, the County Home and the County Jail. That they also visited, by invitation, the following institutions, viz.: The Allegheny City Home, the Western Penitentiary and the Reform School; that in the course of their visits they have made the following observations, that is to say:

THE WORKHOUSE.

The County Workhouse we found in good condition; in fact it could not be improved upon. It is under the management of Mr. Herron, Cordier & Co., and while he is thoroughly able and conversant with his business, and conscientious in the discharge of it. The convicts confined in this prison have a cheerful appearance, are well fed and clothed, and labor as contended in the workshops as mechanics who receive pay for their work. This is the model prison of the western part of the State, and meets a long desired want. The management are to be congratulated on the judicious selection of Mr. Cordier as Superintendent.

ROUGH ON THE COUNTY HOME.

The County Home we found in this condition, to wit: That the inmates are not cared for with the proper attention; that their clothing is not kept clean, and we are of the opinion that they are not provided with a suitable change of clothing; that we observed a general air of neglect about the whole institution, and among other things noticed that there was no attention—or but very little—paid to the bottom of the cleanliness of the inmates, the house, the furniture and bedding; the house was filthy and disgusting, and overrun with bugs, and in our opinion calculated to breed disease. The food furnished, believe to be good. The hospital, so far as we could notice, is all right. The discipline of the institution is bad. We are of the opinion that if this institution was properly managed it would be a godsend to the suffering poor of the county. Were this institution as honestly and efficintly managed as the Allegheny City Home, it would be an honor to the county. It is our opinion that the condition of this institution should be carefully investigated.

THE PENITENTIARY.

We cannot close this presentment without commending those institutions of which we were not official visitors, but which extended to us an invitation to visit them. The Western Penitentiary is all that such a prison could be, and is thoroughly managed in every detail. The discipline of the convicts is good. The treatment of the prisoners is good. Capt. E. S. Wright, the Warden of the Penitentiary, is deserving of praise for his creditable management of this institution.

ALLEGHENY HOME AND REFORM SCHOOL.

The Allegheny City Home is the best institution for the care of paupers in the western part of the State. It is under the management of Mr. Fletcher Grabbs, who has brought the institution to the present excellent condition, and looks after it with commendable energy, honesty and activity.

The Reform School meets a pressing necessity, and is well managed, so far as we could observe from the opportunities to see. The Superintendent, Mr. Loomis, is undertaking the work of reform in this institution carefully and energetically.

THANKS.

The thanks of the Jury are tendered to his Honor, Judge Collier, for his gentlemanly treatment of and kindness to the Jury.

To Mr. Morton Hunter, Assistant District Attorney, for his attention to the inquiries and wants of the Jury, and his universal kindness under all circumstances, we tender the unanimous thanks of the Jury.

A. M. HAMMETT, Foreman.
EDWARD SWEENEY, Clerk.

Indisputable Evidence.

ST. ELMO, Ill., July 8, 1874.

R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Buffalo, N. Y.—I wish to add my testimony to the wonderful curative properties of your Pure Alt. and Golden Medical Discovery. I have taken great interest in this medicine since I first used it. I was badly afflicted with dyspepsia, liver derangement and almost perfect prostration of the nervous system. So rapid and complete did the Discovery effect for me that it seemed more like magic and a perfect wonder to myself, and those that knew me. I was entirely cured without a bottle of the Discovery and Purgative Pellets in the house. They are a solid, sound family physician in the house and relieve all others to fly to him in time of sickness—without charge. We have never had a doctor in the house since we first began the use of your Pellets and Discovery. I have recommended the use of these medicines in several severe and complicated cases arising from, as I thought, an impure state of the blood, and in no one case have they failed to more than accomplish all they are claimed to do. I will only mention one as remarkable, (though I could give you dozens.) Henry Koster, furniture dealer, of this place, who was one of the most pitiful objects ever seen, his face swollen out of shape, scales and eruptions without end, extending to his body, which was completely covered with blotches and scales. Nothing that he took seemed to effect in a particle. I finally induced him to try a bottle of your Golden Medical Discovery, with daily use of the Pellets, assuring him that it would surely cure him. He commenced its use some six months taking two bottles of each night for a week, then one each night, and the Discovery as directed. The result is, to day his skin is perfectly smooth, and the scaly eruptions are gone. He has taken seven or eight bottles in all, and considers himself cured. This case had baffled the skill of our best physicians. Messrs. Dunsford & Co., druggists, of this place, are selling largely of your medicines and their demand daily increases, and they give perfect satisfaction in every case.

Respectfully, W. H. CHAMPLIN,
Agt. Am. Exp. Co.

NOTES OF THE FOURTH.

Decorating City Hall—Probably a State Parade of the Military—Other Matters.

There is an immense amount of patriotism in the abstract current just at present, but apparently very little that takes the form of giving currency for displays forty dollars is the amount wanted to decorate City Hall, and even that small sum seems difficult to obtain. Wheeling has raised $1,400 for the decoration of her City and State building.

It is now possible that the parade of the military on the Fourth will be made a State affair. Gen. Pearson is in telegraphic correspondence with the State authorities relative to making the turnout on the Fourth be in lieu of the regular September review. If he is successful in his efforts, there will be not only the advantage of having the State foot the bills, but a full array of the military will be assured.

Gen. Sweitzer and Harry Byram were appointed a committee by the marshals to make arrangements for having the sashes, rosettes, &c., all made at the same place, thus obtaining uniformity as well as greatly cheapening the cost. They succeeded in making a bargain with Messrs. Fleisher Bros., No., 92 Market street, just above Fifth avenue. Hence marshals, staff officers and aids can procure their designating sashes at that place without trouble and at nominal cost.

Once more we remind collectors that their returns must be all in by to-night.

The Executive Committee will meet at their meeting comes off this evening in City Hall. A full attendance is expected.

A meeting of the Allegheny Centennial Finance Committee was held in the Allegheny City Building last evening when the collection of $250 was reported. The committee then decided to hold meetings every evening until July 4th, and all those who have collection books are requested to meet with the committee and report how much they have collected.

FINANCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
SATURDAY, July 1, 1876.

There is nothing new to report of a financial character. The evenness of summer has settled down on us, and the business men of the city are exceedingly careful in opening new loan accounts, owing to the weight of others they are now carrying. There is really no settled discount rate at our banks. From 6 to 10, and as high as 12 per cent. is charged. The banks are fairly busy, however and the paper offered. Business dull and quiet.
